Scripture: Psalm 133

QUESTIONS FOR SMALL GROUP DISCUSSION AND PERSONAL REFLECTION:

Use these questions about the Scripture and sermon for personal reflection and/or discussion with your small group, friends, or family.

1. Who are the people who know you best? How do you think they got to know you so well?
2. Do you feel known in your small group? If yes, describe the impact that has/can have on your life. If no, share something that would make you feel more known.
3. Read Hebrews 10:19-25. How does your small group remind you of oil (priestly care) and dew (fruitful growth)? How might your group further pursue the spiritual blessings of community?
4. You have a role to play, as does the Spirit. Have half of your group read Galatians 5:13-15, 22-26 and the other half read Romans 8:9-17. What is the role of the Spirit? What are some ways you can encourage each other to be in step with the Spirit?

FAMILY DISCUSSION:

1. Who are the people who know you best? Who do you know really well?
2. Why is it important to go deeper than the surface and get to know people well?
3. Eugene Peterson said, "Christians are a community of people who are visibly together at worship but who remain in relationship through the week in witness and service." Do you agree that following Jesus means something richer than going to church on Sunday? In what ways are you relating or connecting to the community of faith at your church?
4. As a follower of Jesus, the Spirit is alive in you and working through you. Describe what it could look like for the Spirit to work in and through you. Consider the ideas of priestly care and fruitful growth as well as the "one another" commands of the Bible. Here are just a few of them: John 13:14, John 13:34-35, Romans 14:19, Ephesians 4:32.
